

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
STATISTICS, THEORY AND METHODS FORM

It is a requirement of the McGill Department of Sociology that students admitted to the M.A. and Ph.D. Programs who have not previously taken undergraduate courses in Statistics, sociological research Methods, and sociological Theory (or courses equivalent to these) must make up these requirements by taking these courses at McGill. These courses must be taken in addition to the normal course work required of graduate students.

Please fill out the information requested below:

APPLICANT'S NAME:
I WILL HAVE HAD A COURSE ON:	YES	NO
STATISTICS
SOCIOLOGICAL RESEARCH METHODS
SOCIOLOGICAL THEORY		